Testing Environment

The SVCC Testing

Center provides services for both SVCC Students and the local community.

We offer a wide variety of testing and provide a large distraction free room for examinees to test in.

Accommodations are available. For accommodation information please contact the Office of Student Needs at 815-288-5511, ext 246.

Do You Need To Take A Test?

All SVCC student tests and the COMPASS is on a walk in basis. Appointments can be made for these tests but are not required.

If you are planning on taking one of the other tests offered at the Testing Center appointments are required.

All examinees MUST present a photo ID before testing. COMPASS examinees must know their social security number when testing.

Food, drink, electronic devices, coats, and etc. are not permitted in the Testing Center.
