Student
Newspaper Policy:

It was moved and seconded that the attached policy for the student newspaper of Sauk Valley College be approved as presented. Motion voted and carried.

NJCAA Statement
of Athletic Control:

It was moved and seconded that the Board direct President Sabol to advise the Board of Directors of the NJCAA that all funds involved in the operation of the athletic program at Sauk Valley College are under the control of the administration of this college. Motion voted and carried.

Part-time and Overload:

Discussion was held with representatives of the Faculty Association and Faculty Council on overload teaching. It was agreed that a faculty meeting should be held to help clarify the points in question.

Expression of Sorrow:

Mr. Schuneman stated that the Board of Trustees was deeply saddened by the untimely death of Larry Untiedt, a student, who was drowned while swimming near the college campus. He went on to commend the heroism of Kieth Benson, George Vrhel, John Sagmoe, and Michael Seguin who risked their lives in rescue efforts.

Student Petition:

Mr. Schuneman reported that he had received a petition from the student body requesting life saving equipment be provided near the river for emergencies. He noted that this petition was well taken by the Board and that the suggestions would be analyzed and pursued.

A representative from the ASB then requested that "No Swimming" signs be posted and a policy made public so that in the event a student does swim in the river, immediate disciplinary action can be taken.

Policy on Swimming:

The Board then directed President Sabol to make recommendations on a student disciplinary policy on swimming and a policy on the use of college buildings and grounds by unauthorized people.

Transfer Students:

A report was presented to the Board on the academic achievements of SVC students that have transferred to Northern Illinois University.

It was moved and seconded that the Board express their personal gratitude to the faculty and students of Sauk Valley College for the high level of student performance in academic achievements. The Board also wished to go on record as commending the student body of Sauk Valley College for their responsible attitude during the present troublesome times as evidenced by the current unrest on other college campuses. Motion voted and carried.

President Sabol's Report:

New applications for summer school total 84 while 280 new students have registered for the fall semester.

A communication was read from the executive secretary of the Illinois Junior College Board outlining the legislative act which prohibits outside research and consulting services by junior college faculty members.

Convocation honoring service award recipients will be held Friday, June 5, 1970 and Graduation will be held June 7, 1970 at 2:00 p.m.

Adjournment:

Since there was no further business, it was moved and seconded that the Board adjourn. The following vote was recorded: Ayes-Members Coplan, DeWeerth, Perkins, Reuter, Stuff, Walder, and Schuneman. Nays-0. Motion carried. The next meeting will be 8:00 p.m. on June 8, 1970.

The meeting adjourned at 10:15 p.m.

To: Sauk Valley College Board of Trustees
From: Administrators ad-hoc Committee

The Administrative staff of Sauk Valley College unanimously objects to:

1. The principle of having the negotiating team of the Faculty Association and the Board of Trustees negotiate administrative salaries.
2. The lack of consideration of the recommendations submitted by our committee and the Board's complete inflexibility to the question which must be considered as unequal treatment.

Should the Board of Trustees approve its proposed salary agreement and/or revised schedules for the administrative staff, we request that our unanimous position presented here be read into the official minutes of the board meeting as our expression of complete disagreement.

I. POLICY FOR RECOGNIZED STUDENT NEWSPAPER OF SAUK VALLEY COLLEGE

The first responsibility of the officially recognized student press of Sauk Valley College is an honest, accurate, and thorough reporting of the news relating to Sauk Valley College and the community it serves.

The paper (1) shall provide leadership in reporting controversial and problem areas and (2) shall provide an interpretation of news and timely issues of interest to its readers. The ultimate responsibility for meeting these objectives shall rest with the editor in chief and the editorial board:

- 1) All printed articles shall achieve the caliber of a quality college newspaper and shall maintain a degree of professional journalism.
- 2) Editorials will be unsigned and will reflect a majority opinion of the editorial board. Features which express individual opinions will receive bylines. Outside sources will be identified.
- 3) Publicity will be given without charge to all sanctioned college activities. Activities not sponsored by the college will be publicized at the discretion of the editorial board.
- 4) News related to the college will be reported; features of relevance to its readers will be provided.
- 5) Any outstanding achievements performed outside the college by students, staff, alumni, and former staff shall be recognized by the paper.
- 6) Any stand on controversial issues shall be determined by a majority vote of the editorial board members.
- 7) The paper will accept controversial unsolicited contributions at the discretion of the editorial board.

II. STUDENT STAFFING POLICY

- 1) The editorial board is responsible for the selection of the new editor-in-chief each spring.
- 2) The editorial board shall confirm all staff appointments.
- 3) Each staff member must attend at least one staff meeting a month.
- 4) Each staff member must make continuing significant contributions to the paper.
- 5) Each staff member is responsible for the prompt, accurate, and thorough completion of his assignments.
- 6) If a staff member fails to meet his responsibilities, his name will be put before the editorial board for consideration of retention - an appeal may be made to the board.
- 7) Bylines will be given at the discretion of the editor-in-chief.
- 8) A listing of the entire staff will be printed in the paper each month.
- 9) Awards for outstanding writing and photography will be given at the end of each semester.

III. RESPONSIBILITIES OF FACULTY ADVISOR

The advisor has the following responsibilities:

- 1) To approve the editor in chief's recommendations for appointments to the editorial board.
- 2) To provide advice and assistance in the planning activities and the decision-making of the editorial board.
- 3) To serve as ex-officio member of the editorial board with the option of vetoing decisions reached by the editorial board.
- 4) To approve budgeting and expenditure of funds in conjunction with the Director of Student Activities.
- 5) To approve all contracts with outside sources (i. e. advertising and printing contracts) in conjunction with the Director of Student Activities and Business Office.

GWC/ela
5/21/70

IV. ADVERTISING POLICY

- 1) Each advertisement sold will be formalized in written form on an advertising contract (a copy of which is attached to this list).
- 2) All advertising will be sold and solicited by student members of the Sauk Talk staff.
- 3) Only companies within the Sauk Valley College district will be solicited for advertising. Any other advertising will be accepted only with the approval of the editorial board of the newspaper.
- 4) Advertising contracts may be made on a weekly, monthly, or semester basis.
- 5) Advertisers will be billed no later than thirty days after the ad appears in the newspaper.
- 6) Advertising, illustrations, layout, or copy shall be compatible with the editorial policy of the college newspaper and the overall objectives and policies of Sauk Valley College.
- 7) Any ad may be rejected by the editorial board.
- 8) The specific objectives of the advertising program for the Sauk Valley College newspaper are as follows:
 - a) To provide an opportunity for journalism and marketing students to gain exposure and experience in the field of advertising.
 - b) To give businessmen an opportunity to promote their business or products within the confines of the college market.
 - c) To provide revenue to increase the budgetary boundaries of the newspaper.
 - d) To expand its present journalistic efforts.

SAMPLE OF ADVERTISING CONTRACT

I hereby agree to purchase advertising space in _____ issues of Sauk Talk and to pay for this space at the following rates:

(To be completed later)

It is agreed that advertisers will be billed within thirty days after each ad appears.

It is further agreed that if the advertisement cannot be included in the specified week, it will appear in the preceding issue or the money will be refunded, at the advertiser's discretion.

If an advertisement is to be cancelled, the business manager of the paper must be notified in writing one week before the issue is to appear. If there is failure to notify the advertising manager, the ad will be printed at a cost to the advertiser.

The editorial board reserves the right to refuse the publication of any ad they feel is detrimental to either the paper or the school.

Space that is reserved and not used will be paid under the terms of this contract without protest.

RESEARCH OR CONSULTING SERVICES FOR OUTSIDE PERSONS

AN ACT relating to research or consulting services by members of the faculty of State-supported institutions of higher learning. P.A. 76--1343, eff. Sept. 16, 1969.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

216. Faculty members prohibited--Conditions to except from operation. ~~7~~ 1. No full time member of the faculty of any State-supported institution of higher learning may undertake, contract for or accept anything of value in return for research or consulting services for any person other than that institution on whose faculty he serves unless (a) he has the prior written approval of the President of that institution, or a designee of such President, to perform the outside research or consulting services, such request to contain an estimate of the amount of time which will be involved, and (b) he submits to the President of that institution or such designee, annually, a statement of the amount of actual time he has spent on such outside research or consulting services.

217. Definitions. ~~7~~ 2. For the purposes of this Act.

(a) "State-supported institution of higher learning" includes the University of Illinois, Southern Illinois University, the regency universities, the universities under the jurisdiction of the Board of Governors of State Colleges and Universities and all public junior colleges; and

(b) "Contract" includes any grant made by any person (individual or corporate), partnership, foundation or association, other than federal, State or local governments, for the performance of research or consulting services by a member of the faculty of a State-supported institution of higher learning. The term does not include a scholarship or grant for study or research required for a graduate degree or the improvement of existing skills without any services to be rendered for the grantor or donor of such a scholarship or grant.

218. Prospective operation. ~~7~~ 3. This Act is intended to operate prospectively only, and nothing contained herein shall be construed as invalidating or otherwise affecting contracts or grants entered into or made before the effective date of this Act.
