Sauk Valley Community College remembers Adult Education educator and adjunct faculty member, Glenn A. Sauter. Glenn had a successful career teaching sixth grade at Homer Community School District in Homer Glen, IL; teaching history and consumer education to at-risk youth and acting as principal at Lee-Ogle Regional Office of Education; teaching career skills and career counseling to at-risk students at Oregon School District; and being the Director of Guidance at Amboy School District for eleven years. Upon his retirement from Amboy School District, Glenn began employment at Sauk Valley Community College on August 18, 2014. During this time at SVCC, Glenn taught the First-Year Experience course, College Success Skills courses, and numerous adult education courses.

Glenn earned a MBA in Finance from Loyola University and a MS in Counseling from Northern Illinois University. His wife (Vicki) of Dixon and his brother (Wayne) survive Glenn.
