				I am writing this letter for the purpose of filing a FOIA request with Sauk Valley Community College. The basis for this records request is the very gross mishandling of the sexual misconduct complaints filed by Danielle Villareal and Grace Chen when they were both undergraduate students of Hillsdale College (Hillsdale, Michigan) in Calendar Year 2021.[i]. I) Requested Records What I am requesting for prompt disclosure are records in your possession detailing your discussions about [1] the Department of Education (DoED) as a federal agency of the United States government which had in the month of June 2002 published on its official website a portable document file (PDF) explaining that (i) the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) enables the disclosure of students' academic and disciplinary records in various circumstances; (ii) the Jeanne Clery Act of 1990 enabled "postsecondary institutions" to be forthcoming with "the final results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the institution against the alleged perpetrator of the crime, regardless of the outcome of the proceeding" particularly to an alleged victim of any crime of violence (as defined in U.S Code Title 18, § 16); (iii) the 1998 Higher Education Amendments enabled "postsecondary institutions" to be forthcoming with "the final results of any disciplinary proceeding for a crime of violence or nonforcible sex offense to anyone, including members of the general public, if the institution determines that the student committed a violation of its rules or policies with respect to the crime;" [ii] [2] the National Council on Disability (NCD) as a federal agency of the United States government which has on (or around) January 30th, 2018 published a report affirming that (i) 20% (twenty percent) of women were sexually assaulted in a college or university setting (of the U.S.A) by the time they reached their Senior Year in 2005; (ii) 32% (thirty-two percent) of women with a disability were sexually assaulted during Calendar Years 2014 and 2015 in a college or university setting (of the U.S.A); (iii) sexual assault is a "deeply personal violation;" (iv) sexual assault "leaves physical and emotional impacts that change the lives of victims;" (v) sexual assault causes "long term physical, psychological, and emotional effects, including depression, post-traumatic stress, thoughts of suicide, flashbacks, and sleep disorders;" (vi) they had explored the following question: "Are the policies of American colleges and universities compliant with FERPA?" [3] Danielle Villareal as a former undergraduate student of Hillsdale College (Hillsdale, Michigan) who (i) was named on the Dean's List of Hillsdale College in the first two semesters of her freshman year; (ii) was on (or around) August 29th, 2021 raped on campus when she was a full-time sophomore student; (iii) was retaliated upon following her decision to file a complaint against the sexual abuse she suffered on (or around) August 29th, 2021; (iv) has made the decision to transfer to Vanderbilt University after Hillsdale College violated the provisions of FERPA by refusing to provide to her "the final results of the disciplinary proceeding" the individual who raped her was not held to account for; (v) has begun to experience depression, post-traumatic stress as well as sleep disorders following the sexual assault she was the victim of on (or around) August 29th, 2021; (vi) should brace herself for the long-term physical, psychological and emotional effects associated with sexual assault (given the statements made by the National Council on Disability in their January 30th, 2018 report); (vii) has experienced difficulty functioning at the optimal levels she used to prior to being raped on (or around) August 29th, 2021; (viii) may never again function at the optimal levels she used to as a direct consequence of the rape she was subjected on (or around) August 29th 2021; [4] Grace Chen as a former undergraduate student of Hillsdale College who (i) was on (or around) November 22nd, 2021 raped on the campus of Hillsdale College when she was a freshman; (ii) was retaliated upon following her decision to file a complaint against the sexual abuse she suffered on (or around) November 22nd, 2021; (iii) had on (or around) April 09th, 2022 sent an email to Rebekah Dell wherein she demanded to be provided with a "formal written investigation report" for what she went through on (or around) November 22nd, 2021 at Hillsdale College; (iv) has taken the decision to graduate from Hillsdale College with a Bachelor's Degree even after Hillsdale College violated the provisions of FERPA by refusing to provide to her "the final results of the disciplinary proceeding" the individual
