

519.01 Human Subject Research Policy

Sauk Valley Community College shall establish and maintain procedures, which includes an Institutional Review Board (IRB), to ensure the ethical and responsible treatment of human subjects in research. Anyone proposing to conduct any kind of research involving human subjects either on the College premises or on behalf of the College must first obtain the approval of the IRB. The IRB shall be appointed and convened by the President or designee.

6/21/10