

This PC Technician certificate is available for students who are interested in entry level employment in the computer field with a specialization as a personal computer technician.

Work and Employment

PC Technicians are involved in the installation, use and maintenance of computers. They may set up the physical computer and peripherals for end users. They are proficient in operating systems and are often the first responder to end users.

Program Contacts at Sauk Valley Community College

- Academic Advising, 815-835-6354
- Kevin Megill, Associate Professor of Computer Information Systems, 815-835-6251
- Greg Noack, Assistant Professor of Computer Information Systems, 815-835-6434

Total Hours Required - 18 Hours

Major Field Requirements

- CIS 101 - Fund of Computer Info Systems (3 Semester Hours)
- OR
- CIS 109 - Introduction to Computers (3 Semester Hours)
 - CIS 151 - Network Certification (3 Semester Hours)
 - CIS 167 - A+ Certification (3 Semester Hours)
 - CIS 194 - Managing Modern Windows Device (3 Semester Hours)
 - CIS 197 - Security + Certification (3 Semester Hours)
 - CIS 250 - Beginning Linux (3 Semester Hours)

Suggested Program

First Semester - 9 Hours

- CIS 101 - Fund of Computer Info Systems (3 Semester Hours)
- OR
- CIS 109 - Introduction to Computers (3 Semester Hours)
 - CIS 151 - Network Certification (3 Semester Hours)
 - CIS 167 - A+ Certification (3 Semester Hours)

Second Semester - 9 Hours

- CIS 194 - Managing Modern Windows Device (3 Semester Hours)
- CIS 197 - Security + Certification (3 Semester Hours)
- CIS 250 - Beginning Linux (3 Semester Hours)