

FALL 2022 STUDENT ACTIVITIES - FREE EVENTS!

Questions? Email ana.s.salgado@svcc.edu

Wed. Aug. 31

Fall SaukFest – Informational fair where you will have the opportunity to learn about student organizations and receive information from college departments and community organizations! Free food, giveaways, 360° photo booth, and fun! 11:30-1:30 p.m. Riverside Lawn.

Wed. Sept. 14

Pizza with the President – Join SVCC President, Dr. David Hellmich for a casual conversation. Dr. Hellmich will give a brief college update and answer questions from students. Enjoy some free pizza and express your compliments, suggestions, and concerns. 12:30-1:15 p.m. in 1H16/1H18. SVCC STUDENTS ONLY! *RSVP REQUIRED by Sept. 7.

Mon. Sept. 19

“Walk of the Immigrants” by Saul Flores- Saul is a philanthropist, photojournalist, and speaker recognized for his social impact projects. Through his most recent project, Saul documents the amazing lives of thousands of Latin American immigrants to fundraise for an elementary school in his mother’s hometown. His work has been featured on National Public Radio, MSNBC, TEDX, and as a keynote speaker for dozens of universities, inspiring audiences and helping people realize the capacity of their immense human potential given times of extreme adversity. Watch the live Zoom feed in 1H16/1H18 from 12:30-1:30 p.m.

Wed. Sept. 28

suicideTALK: Suicide Awareness for Everyone presented by Cheryl Robinson. Suicide is preventable, and anyone can make a difference. Learn about the impact of suicide and practical steps to help someone with thoughts of suicide. 12:30-1:15 p.m. Rm 2C10

Wed. Oct. 5

Disability Awareness Presentation by Miss Iowa 2013, Nicole Kelly - Nicole was born without her left forearm and her mission is to empower people of all ages who feel different to achieve their goals and exceed limitations. She stepped into the role of public figure after winning the 2013 title of Miss Iowa and going on to compete at the 2014 Miss America Pageant. She gained attention for being one of only a few competitors to have ever competed with a physical disability. 12:20-1:20 p.m. in 2K2.

Mon. Oct. 10

Diversity and leadership presentation by Dr. Joshua Fredenburg - Dr. Fredenburg is a nationally acclaimed speaker, author and leadership/diversity consultant. He specializes in helping students discover the leader from within, lead and interact with diverse groups of people more effectively, and build the confidence and inspiration needed to make a positive impact in their community, nation, and the world. Watch the live Zoom feed in 1H16/1H18 from 12:30-1:30 p.m.

Wed. Oct. 19

ALICE Active Shooter Training – Join Deputy Kyle Kellen as he discusses ways in which students can more proactively handle the threat of an aggressive intruder or active shooter situation. 12:30-1:15pm in 2C10.

Mon. Oct. 24

Blood Drive - Did you know you could save 3 lives by donating 1 unit of blood and that every 2 seconds someone needs a blood donation? Register here to donate!
9:00 a.m.-3 p.m. Dillon Mall.

Mon. Nov. 7

Mental Health Advocate Ethan Fisher draws from his life experience to challenge, motivate, and inspire. From star high school athlete to prison inmate, to the recipient of an MBA with honors, Ethan’s life is a lesson in accountability, passion and perseverance. Growing up in a family that did not speak openly about mental health, Ethan spent his teenage years secretly battling clinical depression and substance abuse while he publicly received accolades for his uncommon talent on the basketball court. 12:30-1:30 p.m. in Mathis Theatre.

Wed. Nov. 9

Tacos with the Trustees – an opportunity to enjoy some FREE tacos while learning more about the role of the SVCC Board of Trustees. 12:30-1:15 p.m. SAUK STUDENTS ONLY. *RSVP REQUIRED by Wed. Nov. 2 at Noon.

Wed. Nov. 16

Mind-Reader/Illusionist, Christopher Carter - Carter is recognized as one of the world’s greatest “mind-readers.” What he does is hard to describe. He has no special powers; he is just in the business of freaking people out. He is notorious for reading and revealing the thoughts of audience members, but don’t worry, he won’t reveal any embarrassing information...unless it’s funny. 12:30-1:30 p.m. in the Cafeteria.