	Tue. Jan. 20	FREE Caricatures by Kevin Berg – Ever wondered what you look like as a caricature? Now is your chance to find out! First-come, first-served. 11am-3pm in the West Mall. SVCC STUDENTS/STAFF ONLY!
	Wed. Jan. 21	Interactive Animal Show - The animal world is far more expansive than can be expressed in words! If you would like the opportunity to see, touch, or learn about animals, don't miss this show! 12:30-1:30pm in the Dillon Mall. FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC!
	Wed. Jan. 28	John Cassidy - Comedy, Magic and Really Weird Things with Balloons. John's show is not your typical comedy magic show! He keeps audiences ages 5 to 95 laughing with high-energy tricks, surprising moments, and lots of audience participation. *Attendees with latex allergies should take appropriate precautions. 12:30 p.m.-1:30 p.m. in the Cafeteria. FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.
	Wed. Feb. 4	Spring SaukFest - Whether in a student organization or a student looking to find ways to get involved, this event should definitely be a part of your schedule on Feb. 4! Please stop by the Dillon/West Malls and Gym between 11:30am-1:30pm to learn about the different resources available at Sauk and enjoy FREE food and fun! SVCC STUDENTS ONLY.
	Wed. Feb. 11	Valentine's Day Celebration: Fall in Love with Student Activities & SGA! Make your own stuffed animal, friendship bracelets, Valentine cards, and enjoy some refreshments. First-come, first-served. 11:30am – 1:30pm in the West Mall. SVCC STUDENTS ONLY.
	Wed. Feb. 18	Lunch with the President's Cabinet. The President's Cabinet is composed of the senior leadership of the college. This team provides advice on college-wide issues and collaborates on strategic decisions. Come and learn about their roles and how they work together to provide a better Sauk experience. RSVP Required by Feb. 13. 12:30-1:15pm in the Riverview Conference Room (1H16/1H18).
	Wed. Feb. 18	Wes Woodson - A mental health advocate, author, and dynamic public speaker known for empowering young people to embrace their mental health journeys. Using the power of storytelling Wes is on the mission to help students everywhere believe three words: I AM ENOUGH. Sponsored by the Counseling Department. 6:30-7:30pm in the Mathis Theatre.
	Wed. Mar. 11	Town Hall Chat – Be a part of an important nonpartisan conversation. 2026 local political officials will dialogue about the voting rights issues we face as a community and describe the importance of increasing people's government and civic engagement in our area. Led by SVCC Vice President of Student Services, Jennifer Schultz. 12:30-1:15 p.m. in the Riverview Conference Room (1H16/1H18).
	Mon. Mar. 30	Blood Drive - Every minute of every day, someone needs a blood transfusion. Give the gift of life! 9:00am - 3pm in the Dillon Mall. Walk-ins are welcome but spots fill up fast so appointments are recommended when possible. Register to donate at redcrossblood.org .
	Mon. Mar. 30	IMALIVE Mental Health Fair - Interactive stations, community art canvas, share anonymous thoughts, and student prizes (Bluetooth speakers, headphones, and more!). Join us in spreading messages of help and hope across campus. Co-sponsored by the Counseling Department, Student Activities, and the Sauk Cares Committee. 11am to 3pm in the West Mall.
	Wed. Apr. 1	Financial Freedom Panel – Enhance your financial wellness and take control of your financial life now! Learn the steps to pay off debt, build an emergency savings fund, invest, and increase your income. 12:30-1:15pm in the Riverview Conference Room (1H16/1H18).
	Wed. Apr. 15	Dawson Hollow - An indie-folk band whose music encompasses the nostalgia of folk while channeling the urgent and intoxicating energy of indie-rock. Their unique and invigorating show brings alive a contagious passion that is too powerful to be ignored! 12:30 p.m.-1:30 p.m. in the Cafeteria.
	Wed. Apr. 22	Brittany Piper - Violence Prevention Educator, Survivor, and Healing Coach - overcame one of the most horrific events any of us could imagine: sexual assault. Brittany uses her story of adversity, resilience and triumph to empower and inspire audiences to take brave action in their own lives and communities. Sponsored by the Counseling Department. 12:30-1:30pm in the Riverview Conference Room (1H16/1H18).
	Wed. Apr. 29	Student Leadership Celebration - A time to honor our students' and student organizations' accomplishments. 12:30-1:15pm in the Riverview Conference Room (1H16/1H18). * BY INVITATION ONLY.
